SHIP AHOY!

The beautiful and tuneful light opera, "Ship Aho," to be produced at the Paris Grand Opera House on Tuesday night, May 11, had a run of two hundred nights in New York and one hundred and fifty nights in Boston.

It is a nautical comic opera of great merit, both as to music and action, and will be given here by a cast and chorus of forty people, among whom are several former Parisians. The music will be under the direction of A. C. Gutzeit, which is a guarantee that it will be first-class. The stage management is in the hands of Mr. Roger D. Williams.

The music of this pretty opera is bright and catchy, the choruses especially being beautiful. The costuming and stage settings are all that can be desired for this most excellent production. The opera is in three acts, taking place on shipboard, on the Isle of Palms and at the Hygeia Hotel, Old Point Comfort. Mr. Gutzeit has the chorus, composed of excellent voices, in fine training, and the principal actors are especially selected for their fine voices. The company will have its own full orchestra.

A marriage which will interest Paris theatre-goers occurred recently uniting Odette Tyler and Regin Davis Shepherd, both well known to fame in the theatrical world. The groom is known professionally as R. D. MacLean, who visited Paris several times supporting Marie Prescott, whom he afterwards married.
Odette Tyler has an enviable reputation as a leading lady, and was once the fiancee of Howard Gould, the multimillionaire. Shepherd will rent out his West Virginia estate, containing 435 acres, at Shephardstown, and go upon the stage. Shepherd's mother was Miss McLane, a renowned beauty, of New Orleans.

Amateur theatricals have taken a strong hold lately on Kentucky people.
Operas, comedies and vaudeville have been given at Frankfort, Lexington, Richmond, Paris, Georgetown, and Cynthiana, and now comes the news that the Pin Hook Dramatic Club will play "Ten Nights in a Barroom," in Mt. Olivet, on May 15, for the benefit of the Mt. Olivet band. The admission will be fifteen cents.

Fanny Davenport was once a spear-bearer in a burlesque, then a soubrette in "Black Crook," and afterward a member of Daly's stock company.

Barnum & Bailey's circus, Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Ringling Bros. circus will show at Lexington this Summer.

Elaine Eilson (Georgie Davids), the Louisville actress, will wed E. H. Power, a New York business man, in June.

Blind Tom, the famous negro musician, is living quietly on the New Jersey side of New York bay.

Dolly Theobald and her husband have signed for next season with the Murray and Mack Co.

shown in Kentucky can now be found at my life; and for the benefit of the suffering I will say that I have never used any remedy equal to Dr. Bell's
